MANY COCOANUTS WERE CONDEMNED

Alexander Crow, Superintendent of Entomology of the Board of Agriculture, made the following report on the cargo of cocoanuts recently brought here on the Lavinia by Capt. Weisbarth:

A local schooner, "Lavinia," brought a cargo of cocoanuts from Palmyra Islands; over fourteen hundred consisted of sprouted plants and were brought as nursery stock. Upon inspection we found them infested with Lepidopterous larvae, differing from the "cocoanut palm worm" (Omiodes blackburni) found here damaging such trees. The leaves were also infested with a microscopic, light colored mite that was feeding upon the chlorophyll, giving the leaves a blotched appearance. All such (1,415) were destroyed by burning and the vessel fumigated with hydrocyanic acid gas. A monster cocoanut crab (Birgus latro) was also imported on the same vessel. As it is a destructive animal, and coming under rule 11 of our regulations, prohibiting its landing, it was killed by fumigation and afterward photographed and a copy is on exhibition in this office.

NIHAU HAS A ROUGH TIME

The steamer Nihaui arrived yesterday afternoon with only two of her four boats. The other two were smashed at Honokaa last Thursday while trying to land. Because of the rough weather she was unable to get any sugar, although there are 1200 bags awaiting her at Honokaa with the mill working night and day. Pursuer Storey's account of the trip is as follows:

"Fine weather on outward trip. Arrived at Honokaa Thursday, the 5th, but could not land passengers. Began to work at one o'clock. Boats Nos. 1 and 2 went on rocks and damaged. Went to Waipio and could not work until Monday. Heavy northerly swell and northerly winds until Sunday, when it blew a gale from the south-west. Heavy winds on Kona coast. Steamer W. G. Hall at Kau. Northerly swell on return trip."

Shipping Notes.

The Nebraska is bringing over 4500 tons of general freight for this port. The Nebraska is due tomorrow morning from San Francisco with five days' later mail.

The R. P. Rithet sailed for San Francisco yesterday morning with 32,555 bags of sugar.

The Mikahala sails at five this afternoon on her regular Kaulai trip. She will also go to Nihaui this time.

The French cruiser Protet arrived yesterday morning at San Francisco. She took a large mail from this port.

The Alameda left on time yesterday for San Francisco. She had only twenty cabin passengers but took about 175 steerage, principally Japs.

The schooner Alice Cooke expects to finish unloading about noon today and will go on the ways tomorrow. Caulking has already been begun under the supervision of Wm. Lyle.

The Mikahala brought only 2000 bags of K. S. M. sugar this trip because of the rough weather. Her other cargo consisted of 150 bags of rice, 90 bags of rice bran and 101 packages sundries.

The Mikahala reports 42,363 bags of sugar on Kaulai awaiting shipment, as follows: Lihue, 6400; K. P., 7000; McB., 7500; M. A. K., 5383; G. & R., 2300; K. S. M., 2800; W., 1000; K. S. M., 3500; H. M., 6220.

Pursuer Grube of the Mikahala reports as follows: The steamer Wailalea is at Kona loading sugar. She was unable to take the M. S. Co. roller because of the rough weather. There has been rough weather on Kaulai for the past three days.
